
Accredited Level 5 Management Award in Advanced Corporate Risk and Crisis Management

Cairo: 24-25-26th of June 2018

In our complex world, corporate reality becomes more and more challenging. Terrorism, Criminal Activity, Accidents, Natural Disasters all disrupt operations and threaten business continuity daily. Managing incidents effectively is a necessary skill for ensuring survival in today's demanding environment.

Risk is present in our lives constantly and learning how to identify, evaluate, process and mitigate it is an essential component of a successful career in a variety of fields including the oil & gas industry, the energy sector, aviation, governments and public institutions, private corporations and NGOs; as well as social science practitioners and fellow professionals.

This course has been designed to offer valuable knowledge and tools to help understand, predict, prevent and mitigate a multitude of Risks present in social and corporate environments. In addition, Crisis Management is an integral part of the course to assist with addressing issues relating to the effective and efficient management of critical incidents both within and outside the industry.

► Course Material includes the following:

- Risk Management in the 21st Century
- Chaos & Crisis: Our Modern Reality
- The Three Steps Risk Management Cycle
- Risk Management & Crisis Decision Making in a Corporate Environment
- Planning, Executing, Evaluating
- Command, Control & Coordination in Critical Incidents
- Structuring & Implementing a Timeline
- Managing the Media
- Hindsight & Lesson Learned for Case Studies
- Self-Auditing: Preparedness Evaluation
- Building Business Resiliency: From Ideas to Daily Practice
- Critical Thinking: Why Does Crisis Management Fail?

The above are thoroughly analyzed through a theoretical lens but also through workshops and practical exercises that help build both a mental framework for understanding Risk and Crises and a practical skillset to manage them.
